NEW CLASSES OPEN AT WILSON NORMAL

Center School to Begin Monday Night.

What corresponds to the second term of the year in the public schools is to begin at the Wilson Normal Community Center School tomorrow night Although all classes are arranged at the school so that a student may enter at any time, the term is about overtime work. Under the new one-half over. There are to be no pro-Adamson bill they would be held motions. An increased enrollment is expected Monday night.

It has been necessary to start an other class in sewing, the demand having filled one class to its capacity. The new class is to begin at 7:30 Wednesday. All those contemplating entering the class are requested to bring material and pattern that no time may be lost. Every style of dressmaking is taught.

Violin Class to Open.

Special work in the domestic scince class is to be started when the class resumes its studies Wednesday. The baking of bread, rolls, cakes, and pies will be detailed. The class has branched out until it now embraces very style of cooking.

Another new class to open tomorrow will be that of violin instruction. Aleady one class has been closed, and a number are enrolled in the one to be started at 7:30 Wednesday.

started at 7:30 Wednesday.

Such interest is evinced in the playing of the violin that classes probably will be formed among the school children of the third division after school hours. Many children have requested the class are not generally admitted to the Community Center School.

Community Music Class.

It is probable the classes will be started in all of the school divisions. provided a suitable teacher can be procured.

The main attraction at the Wilson School for the musically inclined, is the community music classes. Dr. Hamlin E. Cogswell, director of music in the public schools, is in charge. He has asked all who are not able to read music as fluently as English to join the class that meets from 7:30 to 8:30 Wednesday evenings. To those who desire to sing, the community singing classes are open from 8:30 to 9:30 Wednesdays. The classes will form a part of a chorus that will participate in several public events. in the future.

Last Week's Winners

Dear Sir-Last fall I had a very expensive elour hat that I wished reblock sailor into the prevalent style of "English Walking Hat." I was at a loss as to where could obtain the most satisfactory work. A friend advised me of the "Vienna Hat Pactory, 485 lith st. N. W.," saying that they did excellent work. I followed her advice and ook my hat there, and the work when finwas all that could be desired. then I have all my work done there, also nany of my friends on loarning of their good work have come to patronize the Vienna Factory.
